RAFFLING 2 COPIES OF

Study Group" & "Saturday Morning Tell It
Like It Is" Men's Group

Steps • Traditions • Concepts

Step 3: Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God, as we understood Him.

Tradition 3: The only requirement for AA membership is a desire to stop drinking.

1. In my mind, do I prejudge some new AA members as losers?
2. Is there some kind of alcoholic I privately do not want in my AA group?
3. Do I set myself up as a judge of whether a newcomer is sincere or phony?
4. Do I let language, religion (or lack of it), race, education, age, or other such things interfere with my carrying the message?
5. Am I overimpressed by a celebrity? By a doctor, a clergyman, an ex-convict? Or can I just treat this new member simply and naturally as one more sick human, like the rest of us?
6. When someone turns up at AA needing information or help (even if he can't ask for it aloud), does it really matter to me what he does for a living? Where he lives? What his domestic arrangements are? Whether he had been to AA before? What his other problems are?

Concept 3: To ensure effective leadership, we should endow each element of AA—the Conference, the General Service Board and its service corporations, staffs, committees, and executives—with a traditional “Right of Decision.”

- Do we understand what is meant by “Right of Decision”? Do we grant it to all levels of service or do we “instruct”?
- Do we trust our trusted servants— G.S.R., D.C.M., area delegate, the Conference itself? ▲
